Attach a 500 word essay outlining why this teacher is “the greatest”. Help the committee to understand what makes a teacher ‘great’ and explain how the teacher you are nominating meets these criteria for greatness. Help the selection committee get to know this teacher as you do. Be as specific as you can by giving examples of things your teacher said or did that helped you and other students excel. Your examples may include both classroom and extra curricular activities.

Entry forms and essays are due no later than Friday, December 11, 2009 and should be submitted to MaryAnn Rad in the Office of the Vice-President Academic, room D 161, North Campus.

Outstanding high school teachers will be selected and honoured by:

- a special award dinner in the Winter term for the teacher and family, the nominating student and special guests, including the high school principal.
- a plaque of recognition
- a one-year full tuition entrance scholarship in the teacher's name for a student from their school entering Humber in Fall, 2010.

Students whose teachers are selected will be recognized by:

- participation in the award dinner
- their name indicated on the teacher's plaque as student nominator
- a recognition certificate for their award winning essay
- a $500 gift certificate for the Humber Bookstore

Note:

- This contest is open to all fulltime Humber students.
- Student winners will be asked to complete a consent form allowing Humber to use their names and photographs, and/or testimonial or information provided through a personal interview or audio/video recording (“information”) in future contest promotions. (See reverse side.)
