

SUMMER PROGRAM ABROAD

Otago Polytechnic - Dunedin, New Zealand

Dates: June 17 - July 12, 2019

Price: $4,000 NZD

Embark on a journey to deepen your understanding of the preservation of our natural environment while broadening your inter-cultural awareness by discovering the unique culture of the first people of southern New Zealand – a tribe of Māori known as Kai Tahu.

Earn transfer credit to satisfy up to two GNED courses (diploma) or lower level breadth elective courses (degree) from Humber by studying:

- Sustainability in Nature
- Constructing Culture – Understanding a Bi-Cultural Perspective

Must be approved in advance by your Program Coordinator.

Bursary of up to $2,500 for eligible students!

“Studying in New Zealand was so incredible and the people from Otago Polytechnic were very welcoming! Being part of this program helped me understand my role in the world and learning how we can improve the environment around us by being more sustainable”

- Galia Klapp, Film and Media Production
